At present there are several patients in the hospitals at the expense of the society and substantial aid is being given to widows and orphans. The relief society is doing excellent work and is a credit to the order.

Elections in the two Rebekah lodges are next in order and the good sisters are just now earnest believers in "female suffrage."

Knights of Pythias.

The past week has been one of interest and good work in Pythian circles.

Calanth lodge No. 5 convened on Monday evening with a good attendance. The main work of the evening was the adoption of a new code of by laws.

The committee has done well and produced a code that will act as a guide over the road of doubt and knotty questions.

Steps are being taken towards incorporating the various lodges which will place them on a solid basis.

Calanth lodge No. 5 has engaged Brother N. W. Sommecker to attend to the matter, which is a guarantee that it will be done in a proper manner.

Myrtle No. 1 held its regular convention on Tuesday evening with a goodly number of the brothers present. The musical number was a beautiful song by the ladies.

Monte No. 11 met as usual on Wednesday. The lodge is and attention of all the workers in the lodge is absorbed in forming new by laws.

Rocky Mountain No. 3 convened Thursday evening and elected the following named gentlemen to fill the offices during the ensuing year:

C. C. Sig Simon; V. C. J. W. Mahaffey; P. J. R. Brown; M. W. H. Covey; R. E. and S. Fred C. Lyng; E. H. Baker; M. Robert Harrison; E. H. Baker; M. R. A. Tauler; trustee, W. E. Vigil.

After the election the lodge was entertained by Past Grand Chancellor Duncan, of Iowa. He made an eloquent speech on aims of Pythianism and the good that it had already accomplished. He urged the knights of Salt Lake to live up to the principles and make the world better by living up to and advocating the sentiments of friendship, charity and benevolence.

Comrade again, Brother Duncan and don't forget to visit all of the lodges in our city during your stay.

Pythian Sisters.

Mizpah Temple No. 3 held a very interesting meeting on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. James Craycroft and Mrs. Major Granlee were admitted by card.

Ivy Temple No. 2 convened on Friday afternoon with a good attendance. The sisters of Ivy Temple gave a delightful social at the residence of the residence of Mrs. J. H. Jones, 235 Wall street, on Tuesday evening.

The gentlemen paid twenty-five cents each and the amount collected goes to assist the unfortunate and relieve those in distress. Music, recitations, and progressive high five were enjoyed until ten o'clock.

The prizes were both useful and ornamental. A prize was presented to the sisters by Mr. Fred Auerbach. The first lady's prize was won by Miss Harris; the booby prize by Mrs. Harty.

The first gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Richard L. Conely; the booby prize by T. Hall.

The ladies furnished an elegant spread which was thoroughly enjoyed and each of the gentlemen present considered they had no right to take any credit to themselves for the charitable part of the evening for they had received more than their money's worth.

Pythian sisters may success crown your efforts in the cause of humanity and if at times you feel discouraged read the beautiful lines of Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

DOES IT PAY?

If one poor, struggling toiler over life's road, Who needs us by the way, Goes on less conscious of his galling load, Then life indeed does pay.

Sons of St. George.

The Sons of St. George held their social and installation of officers combined at the Temple of Honor hall on Wednesday, Dec. 6, before a satisfactory audience. The programme was carried out to the satisfaction of every one present, in the following order:

Organ solo, by Professor Merrill. The retiring president, H. F. Clark, gave a very neat speech, showing forth the aims and objects of the order Sons of St. George, from its commencement up to the present time, starting with a very small beginning until it had spread over the entire continent.

Song, Mrs. Ray Robinson, "Only a Blue Bell," for which she received an encore, and kindly responded by giving "Hearts."

Volta solo, Professor Ole Bercholdt. Encore, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," rendered in a very unique manner by reversing the bow on the violin.

Select reading, H. J. Silverton, "Guilt, or, Not Guilty," delivered very forcibly and in good dramatic style.

The installation of officers then took place, after the retiring officers had resigned their positions and taken their places among the audience. The worthy Grand Messenger conducted the ceremony and he would occupy during the next term.

Then followed a song by Miss Daisy Newman, "Past and Future," sang in a very pleasing tone, which caused for an encore, which she cheerfully responded by giving another favorite piece, "Dolly Brown."

Professor Merrill gave a solo on the organ, with select music.

Song, Mr. Randall, "Anchored," also demanding an encore, to which he kindly responded by repeating the same.

The worthy Past President, William Gill Mills, who had just returned from his visit to the Old country, gave an excellent speech full of vim and enthusiasm, giving his experience while in England, drawing a glowing picture of the beauties of Old England, its green fields and lovely pastures, relating the interests and intimacies of the people of the Old country, and the people of the Old country.

Regarding America, especially Utah, that an Englishman who has been in America is looked upon as a foreigner in England, and it took him all his time to answer inquiries made to him. The idea seems to be that if they get here their fortune would be made at once. The entertainment closed by the entire audience singing the closing ode of the lodge to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

A. O. E. W.

Both Temple and Salt Lake Valley lodges held their regular meetings. In the latter the election of officers took place, with the following result: Master Workman, W. F. Beer; foreman, T. C. Lewis; overseer, H. S. Beattie; recorder, William Ottlinger; financial, C. Swanner; receiver, George A. Hill; trustees for the long term, J. R. Taylor; medical examiners, Drs. A. C. Ewing and W. F. Beer. The installation of the officers will take place on Thursday in January. The installation will probably be public, and a social entertainment will follow the installation ceremony.

In addition to the election of officers, the workman degree was conferred on Brother S. T. Durant, and the hauler degree on Brother Lorenzo Helzman. A number of applications to join were received and referred to the proper committees.

Queen Liluokalan's Song.

It Dismissed All Except the White Man Who Afterward Married Her.

There's a romance connected with Queen Liluokalan and her marriage to John Dominis. It happened thirty-five years ago when "Queen Lil" was a radiant, ebony-bred young princess and her husband a young man who had come to Hawaii to seek his fortune in trade. The queen, who has always been interested in music, at that time had just begun to learn something of the music of civilization. She was ambitious to be a singer.

Then, as now, there was a small number of whites in Honolulu, who had an exclusive circle of their own, to which not even the royalty of the island was admitted.

Dominis, who came from a "good family," was in a way the "ward" of this set. To a reception which was to be given at the house of one of the prominent merchants, Dominis' suggestion that Princess Liluokalan be invited was at first received with great disfavor. But he insisted that the princess would become a great asset to the party.

So Liluokalan came and was received cordially enough. One of the first breaks that the princess made was to propose in broken English:

"I learn to sing English song. Me sing for you."

Dominis, who is by nature a worshiper of royalty, was of course delighted to have an opportunity to accompany her on the piano. He arranged the music, and the princess sang with great disfavor. But he insisted that the princess would become a great asset to the party.

THE COUNTY AFFAIRS.

W. J. HARVEY APPOINTED JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

Work on the Roads Discontinued—$5,000 Fire Insurance on the Jail—Miscellaneous Business and Appropriations.

The county court met yesterday in regular weekly session. The most important business transacted was the adoption of a resolution providing for the cessation of all work on the roads and the election of W. J. Harvey to the office of justice of the peace for the Second precinct in place of Clarence W. Hall, deceased.

THE ASSESSOR'S PLATS. The matter of providing extra help for the correction of the assessor's plats was referred to Selectman Morris.

HOSPITAL REPORT. The county physician reported county patients in city hospital as follows: St. Mary's, three; St. Mark's, seven; total, ten.

ROAD WORK STOPPED. After some discussion it was decided to discontinue all work on county roads, and the clerk was instructed to notify the various supervisors of the action of the court.

DRAPER SCHOOL DISTRICT. County Superintendent of Schools Allen made a verbal report upon the petition of citizens of Draper school district for the division of that district and the creation of a new district. In his opinion the petition should be granted, but the matter went over for one week, when the superintendent will submit a formal report with recommendations.

JAIL INSURANCE. Selectman Morris reported that he had placed $5,000 insurance upon the county jail with the Hartford insurance company of Connecticut, and $3,000 with the Boylston of Boston, Mass.

W. J. HARVEY, J. P. The death of Clarence W. Hall having caused a vacancy in the office of justice of the peace in the Second precinct, the court, in accordance with the statute governing such matter, took up the question of filling the vacancy. After a full discussion of the subject it was decided to use a man who resided in the same precinct and W. J. Harvey was elected. Among the applicants for the office were Peter Lochrie, H. R. Watson, C. I. Krebs, N. W. Sommecker, Morris Sumner and J. B. Blazer.

FROM THE TREASURER. The county treasurer reported that he had funds sufficient for the payment of all registered warrants up to No. 1,053.

DOUBLE ASSESSMENTS. Ex-County Assessor Hardy sent in a communication in which he expressed the opinion that the present assessor should pay for all double assessments. The collection of double assessments is to be held responsible for such double assessments. The communication was filed.

SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX. County Collector Leonard reported that the amount of the special school tax for collection during 1893 is $36,654.77, and asked that his compensation for collecting the same be fixed. The matter was laid over for one week.

REAL ESTATE SALE. County Clerk Meloy reported the sale of certain real estate to the county.

TAX SALE REDEMPTIONS. On motion the matter of the taxes for 1893 on real estate sold to Salt Lake county for taxes in prior years, upon which the redemption term will soon expire, was referred to Selectman Morris.

LIQUOR LICENSE. The application and bond of Brown & Cushing, of Bingham, for a liquor license were approved.

APPROPRIATIONS. The following claims were audited and allowed:

Court house and land account: Cyril Peck, $22.50; James Shaw, $20.40; Morrison, Merrill & Co., $20.40; S. J. Thomas, $15.15; Valenholm & Morris, $9.15; Prison account: Goldberg & Solomon, $7.90; Novelt Manufacturing Co., $1.50; Roads: H. A. Bagley, $46.30; Robert Walters, $3.00; John J. Heath, $20.87; Inquest: John J. Donovan, $1.70; Infirmary: Proudfoot & Bird, $45.00; Pauper account: Lippman, Wallerstein & Co., $6.75; Martin Lammann, $62.00; William Skewes & Son, $29.60; Expense: J. M. Gary, $15.00; Albert Doman, $15.00; H. V. Meloy, $5.00; George Steadman, $5.00; Samuel Butterfield, $3.00; Total, $1,013.30.

AMUSEMENTS. The stereoscopic entertainment at the theatre last night was most by an audience moderate in size. The dress circle was filled and each gallery had its fair proportion.

The pictures of the World's Fair were very numerous and interesting. They lacked in size and brilliancy somewhat, the perfection one would expect from stereoscopic pictures of the White city. One could only appreciate the magnificence of the great fair in the fact clearly evident that numerous as the pictures were it was only a glimpse.

The lecturer was suffering from nervousness, which impaired his delivery. His announcement that he was in the possession of the gripe found ready sympathy. His lecture was very interesting indeed, but should be shorn of some of the figures and statistics.

THE ORPHEUS CLUB. Tonight the Orpheus club give a concert at the theatre, over which our music lovers are all agog. The chief feature will be the famous Mendelssohn Quartet, male voices, which has many numbers on the programme.

WONDERLAND. A great show will be presented to the patrons of this house for the week commencing Thursday next. The management have secured "The Plantation Minstrels," a genuine "harley aggregation." A complete minstrel performance will be given, and also a first-class olio. A novel feature of the performance will be the dancing contest, the management offering a purse to the best exponent. This will unquestionably be the most amusing contest ever given in this city.
